

Republican Leaders Silent In McCarthy Tiff With President

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House said shortly before noon today that 17,629 telegrams and an uncounted volume of mail had come in as a result of the appeal by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) that the public ask President Eisenhower to halt U. S. aid to free world nations which trade with Red China.

Assistant White House Press Secretary Murray Snyder said he understood Western Union has a backlog of telegrams possibly totaling 1,700 or more.

Snyder told reporters the telegrams have come in so fast it has been impossible to break them down into those which favor McCarthy's China trade demand and those who support the President's stand.

Meanwhile, Republican congressional leaders maintained discreet silence in the Eisenhower-McCarthy controversy.

In a nationwide television appearance Thursday, McCarthy urged that all U. S. aid be cut off to nations which continue to trade with Communist China as long as a single American fighting man remains in Red custody.

He called on all those who agree with him to wire or write the White House.

Some of McCarthy's most influential GOP colleagues obviously agreed with the Wisconsin Senator's stand. But at the same time they didn't want to be linked with McCarthy's public challenge to the position taken by Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles that this nation has no right to dictate trade policies to countries it helps.

The administration has taken the position that this country's allies are not shipping Red China any strategic materials and that such trade as is being conducted with China is, on the whole, to the advantage of the West.

Today's total of 17,629 telegrams represents an increase of 9,783 over the figure of 7,846 telegrams which the White House announced it had received up to 10 a. m. (CST) Saturday.

Michigan Close To Saturation In Prison Camps

By JAMES A. O. CROWE
LANSING (AP)—There is growing evidence that Michigan is close to the saturation point in its pioneering conservation-prison camp program.

The program was started in 1948 with a three-pronged objective—to do a vast amount of conservation work, rehabilitate prisoners and relieve overcrowding in the prisons.

It attracted nationwide attention and is being copied in other states. The nine existing camps now house 596 trusty prisoners who are doing everything, from cleaning up parks to counting game. They build state park roads and parking lots, help game biologists with their studies of wildlife and build and repair picnic tables.

Results Are Bargain
Their contribution to conservation has been incalculable, officials say. Conservation officials have said that for every dollar the state spent on camps it got work done that would cost $3 with free labor.

This kind of a bargain was augmented by some relief to the overcrowded prisons and definite benefits to the men themselves in finding a new life on the right side of the law.

But the signs of saturation became noticeable when the Legislature appropriated money for the tenth camp. The Corrections and Conservation departments decided to locate it some five miles from the Interlochen Music Camp. This developed a public uproar and the site was abandoned.

Then at the invitation of officials of Manistowish County, the camp site was moved there, some 25 miles from Interlochen.

Towns Protest
But at public meetings in Kaleva and Copenish, the nearest towns, strong public opposition was recorded. That site was abandoned.

Finally, the departments found a spot a few miles away from a present camp at Grayling. It seems obvious that it will be even more difficult to locate any more camps.

Another limiting factor is showing up within the penal system. No one in the Corrections Department will admit it for publication, but in private they freely say they are running out of suitable prisoners to send to the camps.

Running Out Of Men
By law, no one convicted of a sex crime can be sent to camp. And by practice, the department keeps all criminals with bad records and aggressive tendencies safely within the walls.

The camp population has grown to 596 at last count, and with the completion of the tenth camp, it will increase another 75. Scheduled expansion will easily bring the camp population to 700.

At the same time, the other segments of the prison trusty division, like the prison farms, Cassidy Lake camp and the honor camp at Marquette, drain away another 1,500 or so "model" prisoners.

Before very long, department men say, they are going to run out of "model" prisoners.

Hoodlums Slay Los Angeles Man

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A gang of youthful hoodlums beat a wealthy manufacturer to death in the heart of downtown Los Angeles Sunday night when he attempted to aid a Marine who was being attacked by the gang.

The victim was William D. Cluff, of Hollywood, owner of the Western Chemical & Manufacturing Co., producers of asbestos products.

Police said the youths ganged up on the Marine, Pfc. John W. Moore, 18, of Camp Pendleton, Calif., at the intersection of Seventh and Broadway. Moore said he was nudged in the back and when he turned one of the hoodlums snarled, "Have you got a beef, or something?"

Then Moore was slugged and the battle moved into the street. Witnesses said Cluff, who was window-shopping while waiting to keep an appointment with his wife, called out: "Leave that Marine alone."

With this four others leaped from a nearby car and about nine youths swarmed over Cluff, beating him and knocking him to the curb. Officers said his head hit the pavement. He died enroute to an emergency hospital.

Later police picked up seven youths for questioning. Moore was only slightly hurt in the fight.

Mediators Busy On Daily Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—Federal mediators came out of surprise talks with union representatives early today and then scheduled new negotiations in the 10-day-old strike against six major daily newspapers.

Walter A. Maggilio, general counsel of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, called the talk after meeting Sunday night with representatives of the AFL Allied Printing Trades Council, whose members have been refusing to cross picket lines set up by the AFL International Photoengravers Union.

The photoengravers struck the newspapers in a dispute over wages and other contract issues. About 400 photoengravers are involved, and their picket lines have idled 20,000 employees belonging to the CIO American Newspaper Guild and the pressmen's, stereotypers', printers' and mailers' affiliates of the printing trades council, and other unionists.

Segregation Fought

WASHINGTON (AP)—Attorneys for Negro parents in Virginia and South Carolina today renew before the Supreme Court the long legal battle to open all public schools to all children regardless of race. They hope to win a decision that segregation of Negro and white pupils is a harmful discrimination violating the Constitution. No decision is likely for several months.

Eisenhower Will Challenge Russia Tuesday In U.N. Talk

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

TUCKER'S TOWN, Bermuda (AP)—President Eisenhower flies direct to New York Tuesday to deliver a dramatic new Western challenge to Russia to join in working out a plan of disarmament and atomic control for a world periled by the hydrogen bomb threat.

With the backing of Britain's Prime Minister Churchill and the French leaders here for the Big Three conference, Eisenhower in a major address to the United Nations General Assembly is expected to suggest a fresh approach to the knotty international atomic problem which has been caught in the vise of a Soviet-Western deadlock for seven years.

Networks Carry Address

The announced subject for the speech is "Perils That Confront the World in This Atomic Age." Major radio and television networks in the United States made plans to carry the address.

It is scheduled for 3 p. m., CST.

The sudden announcement Sunday night that Eisenhower would address the U. N. caused a sensation dominating the closing rounds of his meetings here with Churchill and French Premier Joseph Laniel.

The development overshadowed the shift of the talks today to Far Eastern problems, including France's war in Indochina and negotiations for a Korean peace conference, and continuing British-American efforts to press the French for early approval of the rearmament of West Germany.

The Big Three talks were due to close late this afternoon or tonight with a communique summing up the meetings.

French Premier Ill

The ailing Laniel, still confined to bed with a lung infection, also will fly home Tuesday if he is able.

Churchill will take off for London late Wednesday.

Eisenhower and Churchill, along with U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Eden and French Foreign Minister Bidault, at their sessions Sunday completed the drafting of a note to Russia reportedly agreeing to a Big Four foreign ministers meeting in Berlin, possibly in early January.

The draft of the note was sent immediately to Bonn where West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's approved it today.

In their examination of European problems, Eisenhower and Churchill reportedly heard a plea Sunday from Bidault for new assurances they will maintain their military strength in Europe and will back France's demands for continued close economic union with the strategic border Saar Basin, which Germany wants "Europeanized."

No Commitments
These were given as part of France's price for ratification of German rearmament as part of the projected European Defense Community.

Informants said both Eisenhower and Churchill pledged that, at this time, they have no intention of reducing the combat effectiveness of the American and British forces on the European continent. But both reportedly refused to commit any fixed number of troops to continental duty, or to say how long they would keep troops on Europe's mainland.

Nor would they commit themselves to choose sides in the Saar dispute, it was said.

Boy Held In Miami Admits Killing Two North Of Newberry

MARQUETTE (AP)—Capt. Leo Van Conant of the Michigan state police said today Allan Smith, 17-year-old accused slayer of a Newberry woman and her motel caretaker, had confessed the killings under questioning in Miami, Fla.

Van Conant said he received a telegram from two Michigan state policemen that Smith had admitted slaying Mrs. Celeste Holton, 52, and Robert Milton, 67, last week before fleeing by bus to Miami.

Returning Tuesday

A telegram from Det. Sgt. Anthony F. Spratto and Trooper Charles Hinman, who were sent to Miami to question Smith, stated: "Subject (identified as Smith) has confessed double murder to us."

Van Conant said the officers planned to leave Miami by plane Tuesday morning to return Smith to Michigan.

Smith was arrested Saturday in Miami as he played a pinball machine in a Miami bus station. He is a parolee from the Michigan Boys Vocational School. His mother lives at Brooklyn, Mich.

Shot Through Heads

The youth, who was 17 Sunday, admitted robbing, but at first denied killing the couple found slain in a motel near Newberry in Luce County.

The victims were shot twice through the head with a 30-30 caliber rifle. Their bodies were found last Friday in a motel operated by Mrs. Holton and her husband, Alvin. Milton was a caretaker there.

Holton had befriended the lad by giving him a job "to get him on the right track." After he had been sent to the vocational school three times for petty crimes, Holton was in Jackson, Mich., on a business trip when the bodies were discovered.

Milton's wallet was missing and Mrs. Holton's rifled purse was near the bodies.

Bound For Denver

Smith told Miami police: "I wouldn't kill them. They were nice to me. I left them alive and drove off with their money and car."

His mother, Mrs. Donna Farrington, said that Allan "wouldn't kill anybody," and had written her that he liked the Holtons and was happy with them.

The stolen Holton car was found at a bus station in Adrian, Mich., and the search turned to Miami, when a youth answering Smith's description was found to have bought a ticket to there.

When arrested, Smith was waiting for a bus to Denver.

Death Funnel Injures 230 In Historic Town

VICKSBURG, Miss. (AP)—Rescue gangs hunted in freezing weather today for additional victims of Saturday's tornado that took at least 30 lives.

The temperature dropped to 31 degrees in the heatless city.

National Guardsmen on duty built fires from the debris that littered the streets.

The two latest victims died in hospitals today and authorities said at least eight other persons remained on the critical list.

An undetermined number was left homeless as the twister destroyed 275 homes and damaged about the same number. In addition 29 apartment buildings or multiple houses were destroyed. The Red Cross gave this breakdown on other destruction:

Industries, mills, plants destroyed: 17; damaged: 12.
Businesses, stores destroyed: 76; damaged: 189.
Churches destroyed: 2; damaged: 7.

Clubs, civic buildings damaged: 18, none destroyed.
Down brought the noise of steam shovels, bulldozers and shovels after a heatless, shivering night for the 28,000 residents.

Seventy to 75 of the 230 injured were crowded into Vicksburg's four main hospitals. They were warmed by blankets and electric heaters from the city's homes.

12 Blocks Levelled

Civil defense and military leaders estimated the damage at 25 million dollars.

President Eisenhower Sunday night declared the historic old city a disaster area, authorizing emergency funds to help rebuild 12 blocks of stores, homes and warehouses violently leveled Saturday night.

Today, torn Christmas decorations dangled from lamp posts. One fifth of the city was without electricity. There was no natural gas—the only heating and cooking fuel for most homes. The broken gas main was repaired late Sunday, but city officials feared to turn it on because someone might have left a gas jet open.

Volunteers Hunt Dead

Meanwhile, grocery stores donated bread to make sandwiches. Garages and gas stations loaned trucks and wreckers. Volunteers from many Mississippi towns headed for the city, located on a bluff overlooking the Mississippi River. Debris in the streets was cleared away quickly and rescue workers began digging out the dead.

The twister roared out of the west, cut through the heart of the city, and then faded out.

Ten youngsters between the ages of 2 and 10 were among the dead. Five were at the Saenger Theater when the black funnel struck, collapsing the walls and toppling the roof.

Two tots, both 3, were killed when the tornado struck the Happyland Nursery.

American Prisoners Reported Seen In Camp Near Moscow

TOKYO (AP)—A Japanese prisoner of war recently repatriated from Russia said today he saw "American prisoners" in a prison south-east of Vladivostok, about 100 miles east of Moscow.

Tadashi Maeda, 58, a former Navy captain and military attaché, made the statement in testimony before the Repatriation Committee of Japan's House of Representatives.

Maeda is one of 811 Japanese returned from Russia last Tuesday.

He reported the Vladimir prison, from which he was released, confines only "foreign convicts."

"The largest population in the prison was Germans, followed by Japanese, Finnish, Polish, Turks, French, Britons, Dutch, Estonian and American prisoners of war," he said.

U.S. Delegate Skips Korea Negotiations To Meet With Rhee

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The chief U. S. delegate unexpectedly skipped today's negotiations with the Reds on a Korean peace conference and instead met with South Korean President Syngman Rhee at Seoul, possibly to discuss the dragging talks.

As Ambassador Arthur H. Dean talked with Rhee, aide Kenneth Young sat in for him at Panmunjom in a meeting he termed "a move forward."

Urgent Business
Young said all points of the negotiations were discussed by both sides but gave no indication of any concrete progress.

Kidnap-Catcher Asks Protection

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The police officer who broke the Bobby Greenlease kidnaping case wants police protection.

I. A. Long, president of the St. Louis Police Board, said Sunday Louis Shoulters has requested protection because of threats he has received.

He said officers would obtain a detailed statement from Shoulters on his reasons and, if justified, protection would be given.

Shoulters submitted his resignation during a Police Board inquiry into the arrest of the kidnap-killers of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease and the recovery of about half the $600,000 ransom. The inquiry still is in progress.

The inquiry followed reports of discrepancies in police accounts of Shoulters' arrest of Carl Austin Hall and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady the doomed kidnap-killers, and recovery of part of the ransom. More than $300,000 still is missing.

Latvians In Detroit Bare Soviet Seizure

DETROIT (AP)—Congressional investigators of Russia's seizure of the Baltic states called as a witness today a former Lithuanian prime minister—and a Latvian who says he was forced into the Soviet secret police.

James J. McGuire, chief counsel for the House Baltic Committee, said the first witness would be Gen. Jonas Crenius, head of the Lithuanian government when a mutual assistance pact was signed with Russia in 1939 and now an employee of General Motors Corp. at Flint.

The Latvian forced into the secret police as a teen-age spy, McGuire said, is now a Detroit resident. He added: "It was a choice of joining the NKVD or being shot. He still bears scars from beatings."

As the committee transferred here from New York for hearings today and Tuesday, New York police whisked into hiding a witness who appeared there and said his life since had been threatened.

The committee, headed by Rep. Kersten (R-Wis.) declined to reveal the name of the threatened witness, but said he was safe in a guarded place.

Masks and secrecy will hide the names of some witnesses here as in New York as the congressional probes hear first hand the story of how Russia took the Baltic homeland of 4,000 Detroiters.

Many of these Detroiters refused to testify here because of fear of reprisals against friends and families still living in Estonia, Latvia or Lithuania.

Officials at Dobbins Air Force Base in Marietta, Ga., home base of the single-seater planes, theorized that they got lost in rough, rainy weather. They crashed only a few minutes before they were scheduled to land at Dobbins after an instrument flight from Miami.

The pilots, all members of the Atlanta Air National Guard unit, were identified as Capt. Idon M. Hodge Jr., 30, Atlanta; 1st Lt. Samuel P. Dixon, Chamblee; 1st Lt. Elwood C. Kent, 28, East Point; and 2nd Lt. William A. Tennent, 25, Atlanta.

Jets Carry Four Pilots To Death

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ga. (AP)—Four Thunderjets in tight formation shot through low-hanging clouds near here early Sunday and slammed into a pine thicket, carrying their pilots to instant death.

Officials at Dobbins Air Force Base in Marietta, Ga., home base of the single-seater planes, theorized that they got lost in rough, rainy weather. They crashed only a few minutes before they were scheduled to land at Dobbins after an instrument flight from Miami.

Record Clipped

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A B47 Stratofort bomber flew nonstop from England to MacDill Air Force Base here Sunday in 8 hours 53 minutes, clipping 14 minutes off the old record of the 4,480 miles.

"Aside from strong head winds we encountered no difficulties," Col. William E. Creer of Spanish Fork, Utah, commander of the bomber, said.

Holiday Mail Advice Given

Regina W. Cleary, Escanaba postmaster, has asked the public to cooperate with the Christmas mailing by following a few time-saving suggestions. The post office's main problem is that too many people are waiting to mail everything at once.

"Wrap and mail your gifts two or three at a time. Don't let them pile up on you now, or at the post office later. Begin with those to be addressed to different states."

This year all parcel post going out-of-state should be mailed by Dec. 5, for local delivery by Dec. 10. Size and weight limitations now in effect vary according to destination.

First Class Mail

"The important thing to remember about Christmas cards," Mrs. Cleary said, "is to send them by first-class mail, and place your return address on the envelope."

With a three cent stamp, Christmas cards will be forwarded if the addressee has moved, and a new address is on file, or returned if the addressee cannot be located. Christmas cards mailed first-class also may carry written messages.

Christmas card envelopes smaller than 2 1/2" by 4" or larger than 9" by 12" must carry three cent stamps because they require special treatment. Cards addressed to other states should be posted by Dec. 15, those addressed for delivery within the state by at least a week before Christmas.

Separate Bundles

"Delivery of Christmas cards can be simplified for us and speeded up for you," the postmaster concluded. "Just tie them in two separate bundles, with the addresses facing one way."

Then attach the special labels that indicate "All for Local Delivery" and "All for Out-of-Town Delivery." These helpful tags can be picked up at the post office merely for the asking and will be available throughout the holiday season.

Certified Seed Growers To Meet In Cornell Dec. 15

A meeting of importance to growers of certified seed grain will be held Dec. 15 at 2 p. m. in Cornell Town Hall, according to a bulletin released today by Joseph L. Heirman, county agricultural agent.

S. C. Hildebrand, Secretary of the Michigan Crop Improvement Association, will demonstrate the cleaning of seed grain to certified standards and discuss the factors that sometimes cause seed to be rejected for certification.

William Cargo, Extension Specialist in Farm Crops and Soils for the Upper Peninsula, will report on some recent rate of seedling and fertilization research at the Upper Peninsula Experiment Station.

The production of certified seed grain, particularly oats, has become an important cash crop enterprise on many Upper Peninsula farms in the past five years. Thousands of bushels of Upper Peninsula seed oats are shipped to such western states as Minnesota and Iowa each year.

Certified seed growers of 1953 and all those who plan to certify seed grain in 1954 are urged to attend.

Buoys Being Picked Up By Coast Guard

The U. S. Coast Guard Cutter Woodbine and her crew of five officers and 44 men is at Escanaba City Dock waiting for a day calm enough to allow her to pick up the remaining lighted buoys in this section of the bay and lake, Lt. Cmdr. Ernest H. Burt Jr., USCG, commanding officer, said this morning.

The diesel electric ship has been working her way up from Sheboygan, Wis., picking up lighted buoys and lighthouse keepers. The most important buoys are left in until the last possible minute, to guide end-of-season shipping.

"If it wasn't for the weather and the ice, we'd leave them all in," Lt. Cmdr. Burt said. "We're supposed to extend the season as long as we can safely," he further noted.

44 Buoys Removed

Seek Driver Who Caused Death Of Retired Woodsman

IRON RIVER—John Mattson, 70, old-age pensioner, was killed early Saturday while walking on US-2 on the Ice Lake hill by a hit-run driver.

His mangled body was found alongside the concrete. He suffered fractures of the skull, chest and left leg.

Ralph J. LaRock, chief of police, said that the authorities are looking for a hit-run driver, but have no substantial clues upon which to base their investigation. Sheriff Ed P. Sandri joined the investigation and the state police have been alerted to be on the look-out for a damaged car.

Mattson, who lived with the John Maki family in the Rogers location, Bates township, was seen walking in an easterly direction near the middle of the highway at about 1:50 Saturday morning by Gust Giuliana, assistant high school basketball coach. Giuliana and the players of the high school basketball team were returning home from Niagara.

After arriving at the high school, Giuliana and two youths were returning in Giuliana's car to their homes in Bates township. Giuliana said he saw an object on the concrete and thought he ran over it. After stopping the car, Giuliana noted Mattson's body on the road. It had been dragged about 21 feet, the police said.

Chief LaRock said that Mattson was undoubtedly killed by an automobile about a half hour before Giuliana came upon the body. Mattson is a retired woodsman, having worked in logging camps in the district for many years.

The body is at the Johns Funeral home. Coroner Ray J. LaFave said no inquest will be held.

Find Revolver In Escanaba's Car

When Michigan State Police stopped Richard Courier, 22, of 1516 Washington Ave., Sunday night because his auto muffler was making too much noise, they searched his car and found a revolver in the glove compartment.

Courier said a 13-year-old boy gave him the revolver and he was on his way to return it when stopped. State police are investigating to see if the gun is registered, and by whom.

Courier was put in county jail, charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

Judgeship Discussed By Bar Association

The means by which the Bar Association of the 25th Judicial Circuit may assist residents of Menominee, Dickinson and Iron counties in selecting a judge for the new district that has been created in the three counties was the subject of a spirited discussion of the quarterly meeting of the association Saturday in Iron Mountain.

Further details of the plan will be revealed later, it was indicated.

Approximately 60 persons, members of the bar and wives from the five counties in the present judicial circuit, attended the meeting, held at the Dickinson Hotel.

President Robert E. LeMire of Escanaba presided.

Japan Buys Rice From United States

TOKYO (AP)—Japan plans to import 300,000 tons of rice from the United States during 1954, the agriculture-forestry ministry said. Kyodo News Service said the ministry intends to also import 500,000 tons of rice from Thailand, 300,000 tons from Burma, and a total of 500,000 tons from India, China, Pakistan and Formosa for an overall import total of 1,600,000 tons.

Conference Will Be Held Dec. 14 On Air Petition

A pre-hearing conference will be held in Washington, D. C., Dec. 14 on North Central Airlines' application for a local service route between Chicago and Detroit via intermediate cities South Bend, Ind. and Kalamazoo, Battle Creek and Jackson, Mich.

North Central requested the route in an application filed Aug. 20 with the CAB in Washington, D. C., and at the same time requested suspension of American Airlines service at the intermediate cities.

In a subsequent application, the company Sept. 2 requested an "immediate exemption order" which, if granted, would permit immediate inauguration of service and waiver of public hearings and other lengthy litigation in a procedure which usually requires from 10 months to a year.

Questioned about the suspension of American Airlines, North Central officials express a desire to operate the route with or without the removal of American, but asked for the suspension at the same time in order to dispose of all possible issues in one litigation.

Following North Central's applications, Lake Central Airlines, a local service carrier based at Indianapolis, Ind., also bid for the route, requested suspension of American and also an exemption. The CAB finds, however, that the case should be decided only china, Pakistan and Formosa for an overall import total of 1,600,000 tons.

New Yorkers Learn How Much They Rely On Daily Newspapers

LAST week New York City was without a major city newspaper for the first time in the city's history. Six of the dailies were suspended because of a strike and the seventh, the New York Herald Tribune, was suspended voluntarily because it was being used as a weapon against the other publishers.

The effect of the newspaper strike is extremely significant. New Yorkers found out for the first time how heavily reliant they are upon their daily newspapers. The radio stations and television stations vastly stepped up their flow of news in an effort to fill in the void created by the newspaper strike but it was no use. Everyone agreed that radio and TV were not satisfactory substitutes for the daily newspaper.

Christmas shopping on Manhattan was adversely affected by the absence of papers. As one retailer put it, "Customers want to be led, and without newspaper ads we just can't lead them. They aren't getting above the street floor." Most retailers frankly admitted that they would be in serious trouble saleswise if the strike lasts very long.

The effect of newspaper advertising on buying habits is indelibly portrayed in the New York area. Brooklyn stores continued to do normal business because the Brooklyn papers are not on strike. But Manhattan merchants, dependent upon newspapers that are suspended by the strike, took a beating.

The New York newspaper strike was completely unnecessary and unjustified. The issues involved in the dispute affected only the photo-engravers, numbering only 400. The issues could have been settled by arbitration which the publishers proposed. The union refused. Because of this 20,000 newspaper employees were thrown out of work, and 8,000,000 newspapers readers were denied their daily newspaper. Stores of New York will lose millions of dollars in sales, thereby adversely affecting the labor force of the retailers.

A free press is guaranteed by the American Constitution but the right of a free press is certainly in jeopardy in New York when a handful of union leaders can close down in one sweep all of the daily papers in the nation's largest city.

The New York strike points to the need for prevention of strikes in communication industries, such as telephones, telegraph, newspapers, radio, television, etc. In all such labor disputes issues can be settled by compulsory arbitration without the serious impact upon so many people who are hurt by these strikes.

Words, Wit & Wisdom

By William Morris

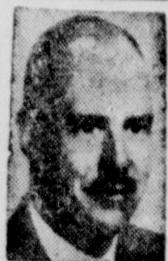

As we might have expected, those "hi-fi" addicts we have written about several times lately are blazing still newer trails in the as-yet-uncharted wilderness of sound reproduction. Five years ago "high fidelity" implied hundreds or even thousands of dollars worth of equipment, especially assembled and housed in custom-built cabinets. Today, leading manufacturers of radios and phonographs have announced mass-produced "hi-fi" instruments at reasonable prices for the ordinary citizen's living room. So now we find the specialists and advanced hobbyists off to attain a new "dimension" in sound. And, in the process, they are adding at least two new words to the language—"monaural" and "binaural."

"Monaural," obviously, is a coinage from the common prefix "mono-" or "mon-" meaning "one" and "aural" from the Latin "auris," ear. Thus one might think "monaural sound" means sound heard through one ear, while "binaural sound" would be sound heard through both ears. Only in a limited sense is this correct, since the "ears" referred to are not human ears but actually recording devices or broadcasting wavebands.

"Binaural sound"—and you might as well get used to the phrase because you'll be hearing a lot about it in the next few years—employs two separate but complementary sound signals picked up by different microphones, recorded or broadcast separately and played back through separate speakers. To listen to binaurally reproduced music one places loudspeakers in positions simulating the placement of microphones in a studio. Then, by sitting between the speakers at an angle, you hear music with a depth and breadth of likelihood realism unobtainable by ordinary methods. It sounds, quite literally, as though the orchestra were in your living room and you were on the conductor's podium.

Obviously proper reproduction of binaurally recorded music requires special tape recorders or double-tracked phonograph records and pickups, and at present it seems too expensive for any but the professional sound man and the very advanced amateur. But some local AM-FM radio stations are already broadcasting binaural music and you can hear it in your own home if you have both an AM and FM radio. Why not inquire of your local station whether they are planning binaural broadcasts? You'll find the "new sound" utterly fascinating!

What's that you say? "Monaural?" Oh, that's plain old-fashioned sound recorded or produced through only one loudspeaker. Its produced through only one loudspeaker. Its what you have been hearing, lo, these many years without ever dreaming it was to be called "monaural." Indeed, my strong suspicion is that "monaural" was only coined to point up the differences between ordinary and "binaural" sound.

The Doctor Says . . . Sleeping Sickness Is Rather Rare Disease of the Brain

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D. — Written for NEA Service

A worried mother has recently written me, saying that her daughter has encephalitis, and asking for a discussion of this subject.

First, the word, encephalitis means inflammation of the brain. There are several kinds, but one of the best known is sometimes known as American sleeping sickness because many of its victims show a tendency to excessive sleep, sometimes for months or even years at a time.

The "sleeping-type" of encephalitis was first described about 1917. It often appears in small epidemics. The most constant symptoms during the early stages are headache, disturbances in sleeping, and disturbances of vision, such as blurring of sight or seeing double. Other nervous signs may also appear, but those mentioned are the most common.

After passing through the acute stage, a chronic phase is recognized. This is a progressive condition and the outlook is not good. There is unfortunately no serum or drug which can be used with invariable success to combat this condition.

A somewhat similar situation exists with the other forms of brain inflammation although in some of them complete recovery can take place.

Horses also contract at least two forms of encephalitis and certain kinds of mosquitoes carry the virus infection from these animals to human beings. In the horse-spread type of the disease, the aim is to destroy all the mosquitoes which might become infected from the horses and to protect people living in the vicinity from bites by these insects.

All forms of encephalitis are caused by viruses which are tiny living bodies too small to see under the ordinary microscope. These viruses have not yet been very well classified although most of them have been seen by special methods or grown outside the living body.

HAVE STRANGE NAMES
At present they carry such strange names as Japanese type B encephalitis, St. Louis type encephalitis, Australian X disease, and Russian spring-summer encephalitis. Some of these may be caused by the same virus, but research workers are still somewhat uncertain about their relationships.

Fortunately, all forms of encephalitis are rather rare except in occasional epidemics. Prevention and treatment leave much to be desired and, consequently, a great deal of research work on this subject is now going forward.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Though the Bermuda conference was called partly because of the accidental fact that Winston Churchill insisted on a big four meeting with Malenkov and because Bermuda was a semi-substitute, actually this accident came at just the right time.

For the Russians were beginning to score some hits in their game of pulling the allies apart. The Bermuda meeting, therefore, is giving an opportunity to patch up the old alliance.

Here are some illustrations of how the Russians were playing the game of divide and rule:

1. Moscow proposed a nonaggression pact between Russia and France.

Why join the United European Army and tolerate the danger of German rearmament? The Kremlin has argued. Why not sign a nonaggression pact with Russia thereby completely removing the danger of war? This has a lot of appeal in Paris, first, because the Communist Party is powerful in France, second, because the United European Army is, of course, aimed at blocking a Red Army invasion.

2. Ambassador Bohlen has cabled the State Department that the Kremlin has been adroitly wooing the British. The other day Premier Malenkov made the unprecedented move of asking British Ambassador Sir William Hayter to come to the Kremlin for an impromptu visit. Malenkov gave the ambassador only 30 minutes notice so he didn't have time to cable his government for instructions.

TEA IN THE KREMLIN

However, at the Kremlin, the two had a friendly chat, at which Malenkov turned on all his charm, told Hayter that Britain could lead the world if it didn't persist in tying itself to the apron strings of the United States.

The ambassador reported back to London that Malenkov was a man his government could do business with; that he was sure Churchill would be welcomed royally if he goes to Moscow alone.

Simultaneously, Lady Hayter was invited to tea by Mrs. Molotov, wife of the deputy premier. This is almost unheard of in the Russian capital, but was new evidence of how the Russians are playing the policy of trying to divide and rule.

These are some of the things Churchill, Eisenhower and Laniel are trying to counteract by personal conversations. For there is nothing like personal, across-the-table, face-to-face contact to improve diplomatic relations.

FRENCH RIVALS

The French delegation at Bermuda is not a happy one. Premier Laniel is scarcely talking to his foreign minister, Georges Bidault. Laniel and Bidault are rival candidates for President of France in the elections scheduled for December 17, and each is afraid the other is going to steal the publicity spotlight at Bermuda just before the balloting begins. Premier Laniel, however, seems to have the inside track.

DULLES ON MCCARTHY

John Foster Dulles' blast at Joe McCarthy and Eisenhower's subsequent support are the tipoff that Dulles has decided that from now on he will stand up and fight every time the senator from Wisconsin attacks the State Department and American foreign policy. Dulles has been overboard in the past trying to get along with McCarthy and the co-called "Neanderthal" wing of the Republican party.

In an effort to appease McCarthy, he even went so far as to appoint Scott McLeod, an aide to Senator Bridges but even went closer to McCarthy as his top security officer. But every time he yielded, Dulles found it only encouraged McCarthy to attack the State Department harder.

As a result, he is now fed up, has told his friends that he intends to be a fair and decent Secretary of State even if it means a fight with McCarthy or anyone else who unfairly criticizes Eisenhower's policies.

IKES VS. DULLES

It was a fighting mad secretary of state President Eisenhower found waiting for him in Washington when he flew back from Augusta after Thanksgiving. In his hand, Dulles held the statement blasting McCarthy which he later gave to the press.

Ike was a little surprised at first. Down in Augusta he hadn't paid too much attention to the McCarthy broadcast. In the first place, he didn't listen to it over the radio, and the first edition of the New York papers which reached him next morning didn't carry the story, while he didn't read the local Georgia papers.

Most surprising, however, no one in the White House in Washington bothered to send him the text of what McCarthy said. So he was totally unprepared for the rage of his Secretary of State.

However, when Dulles explained the implications of the McCarthy attack and showed him a series of cables from U. S. ambassadors reporting that the prestige of the Eisenhower administration had sunk to an all-time low, the President readily agreed not only to the Dulles statement, but to back it up himself.

Committee Of June 17 Fears New Blood Bath In Germany

By Robert Richards
NEA Special Correspondent
BERLIN (NEA)—The Russians are setting the stage for a major blood bath soon in Eastern Germany.

All they need is the slightest excuse to set their plan moving. Communist workers in East Zone factories have been armed, for the first time. They stand at their machines with weapons close by. All Russian troops have been returned from maneuvers in the country and ordered into the large cities—where they can be used immediately if there is any throwing of rocks at tanks, or storming of political prisons, such as took place last June 17.

I got this information from talking to members of the "Committee of June 17"—all of whom battled the Russians to the last ditch on that famous day which electrified the Free World. The Committee has established headquarters in an ancient house on the tree-shaded Hindenburg Dam in the American Zone.

"We have the latest news," said Jochen Schroder, 26, a German actor, and the man who is credited with starting the revolt rolling in Magdeburg, where the fighting was among the heaviest in Germany and 36 persons died—among them were a boy, 8, and another boy, 11.

"We have formed here our Committee of June 17 and we will do all we can to tell our comrades not to rise up too early. Not to begin the revolt again until there is some chance of outside aid. To start the battle now would be wholesale murder. This time the Russians are set and waiting and eager for reprisals—and they are ruthless. For the first time, we know they have armed German Communist workers and our people can be destroyed at their machines.

"It is of utmost importance that to a purpose. And what do American authorities at RIAS say? Friedrich Schorn, 39, a dark-haired little man with sad eyes, then took over. Schorn helped lead the attack in June in the great Leuna Works near Merseburg, 100 miles from Berlin. Artificial benzene is manufactured at Leuna, the largest industrial plant in East Germany.

WERNER MANGELSDORF: We tell them what not to do.

nothing be done to give the Russians the excuse to wipe them out."

I asked, "What is needed most to keep this flame of revolt against Russia burning?"

Werner Mangelsdorf, 28, who was sentenced to death in absentia for his part in storming the walls of a Magdeburg prison, said: "That's simple. We need funds to work with, but most of all—right now—we need to go on RIAS, the radio of the United States here in Germany, and we must talk to our people in the Eastern Zone. We must advise them and tell them what to do—and what not to do. "When we left, our comrades said, 'Do not desert us. And do not forget us.' We will do neither. If we could go on RIAS I believe we could save many lives because our people in the Eastern Zone cannot stand the many things they must stand. Unless we halt it with our words the pot is bound to boil again."

Mangelsdorf is a husky, tough-looking youth, who was once a member of the Eastern Zone's Peoples Police. He escaped from Magdeburg inside a coffin, in a fake funeral procession. He has the same look that all these members of the June 17th Committee have—the look of people who are completely unafraid and dedicated to a purpose. And what do American authorities at RIAS say?

Friedrich Schorn, 39, a dark-haired little man with sad eyes, then took over. Schorn helped lead the attack in June in the great Leuna Works near Merseburg, 100 miles from Berlin. Artificial benzene is manufactured at Leuna, the largest industrial plant in East Germany.

"We are glad to be here," he added, "but we are disappointed a little in the people here in the West. Where is the spirit? We find too little of this among you."

Use Care When You Make Christmas Gift Selections

EAST LANSING—Christmas merchandise should be bought with special care to avoid returns, points out Geitel Winaker of Michigan State College's textiles, clothing and related arts department.

Customers who abuse the privilege of returning goods to department stores and specialty shops indirectly make higher prices. Some returns are justified, but many are not.

When shopping, keep these points in mind, suggests Miss Winaker:

Know the right size, don't guess.

Match With Sample

Get the right color—bring along a sample of anything you want to match.

Don't buy an unsatisfactory style because you are rushed or because there is a crowd. Think it over and make up your mind. Shop before noon when there are fewer crowds.

Check for soiled spots, torn stitching and damaged places be-

"At RIAS they tell us no," he said, "They believe in our battle, I think, and they are for us, but they say there is too much danger of causing another war. They do not wish to risk it."

None of the committee that I talked to seemed to resent this decision. They feel the chances of the blood bath in Eastern Germany are increasing with every minute, and that they are the only ones who can control the friends and comrades they left behind.

"All over the Eastern Zone we got sick of it," said Mangelsdorf. "We were what you call 'fed up.' We were tired of being unable to talk among ourselves without being afraid that someone else was hiding in a nearby doorway and listening. We got sick of their signs and their slogans. Everywhere you saw the same: 'Work for the Five-Year Plan.' 'Do Your Best for the Nation.' We had no nation. We wanted to get it over with, to settle it with the Russians, one way or another. So we attacked."

Another hero of that attack is stocky, blond Horst Ballentin, 23, who once worked in an East German factory. He is the one who climbed Brandenburg Gate—the border between East and West Berlin—and brought down the Red flag that day in the midst of flying bullets.

Since then he has gone to Moral Re-Armament headquarters in Switzerland to see if he can find a way to convert Russians with ideas instead of riots.

Schroder, the hero of Magdeburg, told me later: "We are proudest of one thing. At Magdeburg there was no question of a slaughter. We killed no Russians and we killed no Peoples Police. We went into the fight with the idea of changing things for ourselves and not with any desire for violence.

"We are glad to be here," he added, "but we are disappointed a little in the people here in the West. Where is the spirit? We find too little of this among you."

Good Evening . . .

By CLINT DUNATHAN

MORE OR LESS—From the viewpoint of those who believe the people should have ample public area for parks and recreation, Escanaba is indeed fortunate.

And from the opposite viewpoint—that a city can become "land poor"—Escanaba is unfortunate.

The opposing views are presented preliminary to a discussion of the proposal that the city sell its bay shore property opposite the athletic field on Lake Shore Drive. The question is now being studied by the city planning commission, to which it was referred by the City Council.

What the planning commission will recommend to the Council as the correct solution to the problem is not yet known. Perhaps the commission itself will have a difficult time arriving at a decision.

One point should be kept in mind: The question is primarily one of retaining or releasing public park area as a matter of community policy.

ARGUMENT—The contention that city should sell the shore property so that homes could be built there and additional tax revenue obtained is beside the point.

That same argument could be used to establish an invalid approach to the whole subject of city ownership of park and recreation land.

Certainly there would be strong public protest to any such proposal directed toward the intended sale of any portion of Ludington Park, Rose Park, Royce Park. Yet all of these lands would be fine for business, residence, or industrial development—and it would presumably bring tax benefits to the city.

Because the area on the bay shore opposite the athletic field has not yet been named or improved for park or recreation purposes does not make it any less valuable for such public use in the future.

For many years most of the Ludington Park area was unimproved. In fact a large acreage has yet to be graded and improved. But through the years, so far as we know, there was no suggestion that any portion of Ludington Park be sold into private ownership.

LOOKING AHEAD—The southward expansion of the city's residential district has brought the question of the sale of the city's bay shore land near the athletic field before the people.

Many new homes have been built on adjacent private land once known as South Park. Until this occurred and the shore property suddenly became valuable it was occupied by birds and rabbits and was a hunting ground for boys with sling shots and air rifles.

Now, because the shore front has become desirable residential property and valuable beyond the dreams of those who once let some of the property revert to the state for unpaid taxes, the city is asked to sell its public land.

If the adjacent property is more valuable than ever before, then the city's land has also increased in value—to the people who will want to use it as a place of recreation. The years ahead will bring more, not fewer, homes in that section of the city. The desirability of a shore park there will be clearly evident. And because there is such park the value of the surrounding property will be increased.

CAN BE SOLD—Why the haste in pressing at this time for the sale of that particular portion of city land?

The answer is that it represents a key to the future development of the area. Its sale now would forever close that section of the shore to the public.

If it is not to be sold, then the residential lots on the west side of Lake Shore Drive, fronting toward the park and with a fine view of the bay, should be almost as valuable as the shore property held by the city.

The future of the area is indicated in the trend toward larger lots and the rambling type of one-story homes. It is equally desirable that this effect of spaciousness be sustained by continuing the city's ownership of its land—as guaranteed elbow room for the public in the future.

The decision whether to sell or not to sell should be made now by the city. But it should also be remembered that only good can come if it is not sold—and there is always the possibility of selling it later at even a higher figure than would be received today.

Some criticism has been voiced that Escanaba has too much public-owned land. This is scarcely compatible with certain facts indicating that the city does not have enough land.

Through lack of foresight in the past the city does not have sufficient land downtown on which it could build a new city hall. There is no public-owned centrally-located site for a new court house. The planning commission's recommendation for acquiring a civic center site was rejected or forgotten.

Should the city sell its south bay shore property? Not until it has been definitely established as of no value to the public.

Some folks think a big desk and a pre-occupied mind make a boss.

A pound of phosphorus will tip a million matches, none of which little kids should play with.

much cash this year as last in the form of Christmas bonuses to employees.

Year-end dividends to stockholders also are running ahead of payments last year. Dividend checks for the first 10 months of the year averaged 4 per cent larger than in 1952. With the current burst of specials for Christmas, dividend payments this year are expected to reach 9½ billion dollars.

Wages Above 1952

Regular wage and salary payments for the nation as a whole this fall were running, at an annual rate, 8 per cent above a year ago — but the trend is slanting down from the peak.

Bonus payments often make all the difference to top kicks of industry when they tally up their total take for the year.

Surveying some 15,000 executives in 1,868 companies, the American Management Assn. reports that bonus payments are equal to 43 per cent of salaries paid, and retirement compensation contributions equal 13 per cent of salaries.

The National Foremen's Institute of New London, Conn., reports today that the total of cash handed out to workers may be no larger than last year, despite the business boom of 1953. This is the first year since 1950 that salaries have been free of government controls.

Based on Seniority

Polling 1,296 companies in all parts of the nation on their Christmas plans, the institute finds that 56 per cent plan to give bonuses. Last year 58 per cent did.

Bonus checks this Christmas will be fatter for employees of 30 per cent of the firms paying them. Payments no larger than last year are in sight for employees of 53 per cent of the firms. And management of 17 per cent are still making up their minds how much to pass around. Widespread caution about 1954 prospects may color their decisions.

In small companies the hourly workers are likely to get a flat amount, while the salaried get a percentage of their salary or a bonus based on length of service.

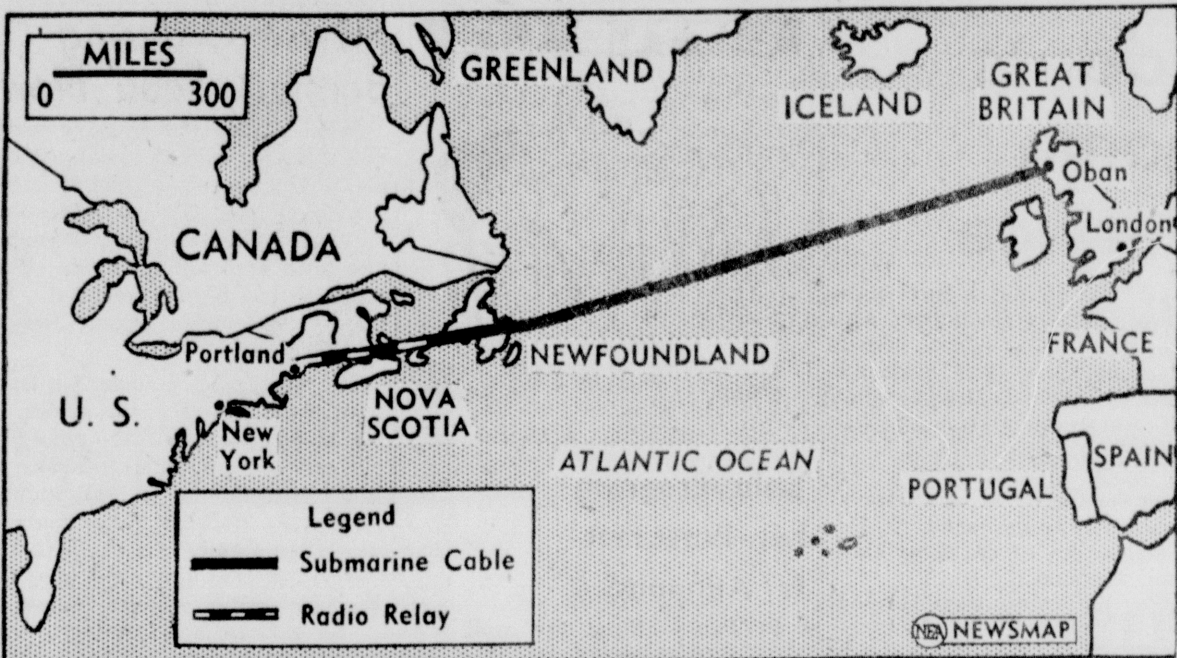

In large firms the institute finds the most popular method is to base the amount of the Christmas bonus for both salaried and hourly paid workers on percentage of earnings.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A psychologist says you can help your marriage by telling wife or husband what's bothering you.

The biggest cause of marriage failure is people not telling their partners how they feel, Oliver Bown, assistant director of the University of Texas Testing and Guidance Bureau, told the Texas Psychological Assn. Friday.

"Lack of communication between a couple is a danger sign," Bown said. "A man and woman may share the same house, meals and bed and still not know how each really feels about things."

SAULT STE. MARIE—The cooperation of 34 tavern operators was pledged Friday night in a program designed to hold down the amount of drunken driving during the holidays. Chief of Police J. Willard Welsh announced. The 34 were present at a meeting in the city commission room at city hall which was also attended by Prosecuting Attorney James H. Henderson, Sheriff Roy Guest, Ruane Voight of the Liquor Control Commission, and two Air Force officers.

STEPHENSON—With 75 volunteers signed to date, a final drive will be staged Monday night for an enrollment of 200 persons in the Ground Observer Corps being organized at Stephenson, reports Myrtle C. Schafer, chief observer.

SAULT STE. MARIE—A cargo of oats is being reloaded on the freighter Sullivan Brothers, after it was released from Vidal Shoals about 3 p. m. Friday.

A combination of southerly winds and cross currents leading to the Sault Rapids contributed to the release of the freighter causing the stern to swing northward. Following this action, the Great Lakes Towing tug Favorite put a tow line on the bow and hauled the grounded freighter clear of the shoal.

NEGAUNEE—Sgt. Donald W. Tremewan, recently returned from duty in Tripoli, Africa, Mrs. Tremewan, and their son, David, spent the Thanksgiving holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Broad. It was his first Thanksgiving at home since 1941. Tremewan enlisted in the Air Force in June, 1942, and served four and one-half years in Japan before going to Africa. He was in Tripoli for 18 months. Tremewan is anxious to begin civilian life. He will locate in Minneapolis, Minn.

Iowa Man Robbed Of Over $100,000

OCHEYEDAN, Iowa (AP)—Two bandits robbed a wealthy Ocheyedanan insurance man of more than $100,000 in government bonds and about $1,300 in cash Sunday night, Sheriff Fred Huisman said early today.

The masked men entered the home of Charles Strayer, 77, reportedly one of the richest men in Osceola County, while he and his wife were in the kitchen.

One intruder greeted the elderly man: "Hello, Charlie. This is a stickup. We've done business with

McCarthy Lauds Job Done By Eisenhower In Removing Pinkos

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) says the Eisenhower administration has done "a tremendously good job since the first of the year" in removing 1,457 security risks from the government payroll.

Speaking Sunday night before the Overbrook Lecture Club, the Wisconsin senator repeated to the audience the request that he first made in a televised speech that they write or wire President Eisenhower as to whether they approve trading of allies with Red China and other Communist nations.

An audience of more than 1,000, overflowing the lecture hall, applauded frequently during McCarthy's speech. The senator was introduced by the Very Rev. Francis

Peninsula Students Join In Oklahoma Cash Escort Service

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP)—Chivalry, dead for years, has been pushed about six feet deeper into the ground by four Oklahoma A&M College undergraduates who decided to trade the Sir Lancelot idea for a fast dollar.

They are selling good looks and social poise for 70 cents an hour to dateless damsels.

Calling themselves the Citywide Escort Service, they hope their business venture will prove the answer to a desperate coed's prayer. They are available, at the prevailing rates, for coke dates, dances, bridge, coffee or tea drinking, or any other social gathering. The boys—Gaylord Ortman, Hennessey, Okla., sophomore, Joe Perry, El Reno, Okla., senior, Dave Bergdahl, junior from Skandia, Mich., and Jerry Herrin, Meno, Okla., freshman—guarantee the young ladies a date they will be proud of, well-mannered, well-dressed, well-read, 2311.

They're available at a moment's notice to fill in for a girl whose date has suddenly come down with double pneumonia. They believe these emergencies will constitute the bulk of their business—which hasn't been booming yet but proves promising.

The boys announced their arrival on the Oklahoma A&M social scene with an ad that read: "Girls, don't panic. An escort is as close as your telephone."

Here's the way their system works:

Customers get the use of one of four cars—their choice. The first 20 miles are free and a nominal charge of 3 cents a mile is added thereafter. Cigarettes, the customer's brand, are free. Rates start at 70 cents an hour for single dates with lower rates for double, triple or quadruple dates.

Phones at the Citywide Escort Service have been ringing since the ad appeared with more requests from pranking men students than customers. But it's no laugh for the four young partners, who claim:

"We're in it strictly for the dough."

Premier Of Israel, David Ben-Gurion, Retires To Desert

JERUSALEM, M.P.—David Ben-Gurion resigned today as prime minister of Israel to follow the trail of the Jewish nation's ancient prophets into the wilderness to meditate and rest.

The 68-year-old statesman, premier of Israel since its founding in 1948, submitted his formal resignation this morning and said his goodbye to President Izhak Ben-Zvi over a cup of Turkish coffee.

The outgoing prime minister, who had insisted he was too tired to carry on, has a bare four-room prefabricated house ready for him in the desert wilderness where he is retiring temporarily to the role of elder statesman.

Foreign Minister Moshe Sharett is taking up the government reins as acting premier.

Cartoonist Mauldin Veterans Chairman

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Bill Mauldin, creator of the "Up Front" cartoons depicting World War II army life, is the new national chairman of the 10,000-member American Veterans Committee.

The 300 delegates to the AVC's weekend seventh annual convention elected Mauldin Sunday and went on record as backing President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles "in their position that threats and swaggering domination must not become the basis of American foreign policy."

Trade With Red China Increased By Japan

TOKYO (AP)—Japan sharply increased its trade with Red China during November.

Kyodo news agency said that Japan exported $1,596,000 worth of goods to China and imported $1,332,400 worth.

This volume is nine times the average for the previous five months, Kyodo said. Last year Japan did virtually no business with Red China.

Goods shipped to China are classed as non-strategic by the United States.

Yule Program For Pinecrest Is Announced

POWERS—Plans are well under way for the holiday season at Pinecrest.

Wednesday evening, Dec. 2, the veterans in the sanatorium were guests of honor at a Christmas party given by the Uren-Cooper Post Auxiliary and the VFW Auxiliary of Iron Mountain. A gift shop was set up for the men at which they were able to choose a gift. This unique arrangement was happily received. Following the evening's entertainment, refreshments were served by the sponsoring group.

Thursday evening, the North Menominee Community chorus will present a concert.

The annual school party for the students of Pinecrest will be held Wednesday evening, Dec. 16.

All the patients of Pinecrest will gather in the large auditorium for their annual Christmas party, Dec. 17. This has always been a very festive affair. This year the Barber Shoppers of Marinette will be one of the features. A skit entitled "The Night Before Christmas" will also be given. Presentation of gifts will be followed by lunch.

Advise Ordering Bonham Seed Now

Farmers who plan to grow certified Bonham oats in 1954 must order their Foundation seed at once, a bulletin from George Wenner, manager of the Michigan Foundation Seed Association, said. The bulletin has been released by County Agricultural Agent Joseph L. Heirman.

The supply of Foundation Bonham seed, which is all grown in the Upper Peninsula, is plentiful, but only the amount necessary to fill bona fide orders will be held for spring delivery. The remainder will be delivered early in the year to fill the active demand for Bonham seed in western states.

The bulletin noted that the Bonham rate of seeding trials at the Upper Peninsula Experiment Station last year showed that the rate of 2½ bushels per acre gave greater yields than either the 1½ or 3½ bushel rate. Actual yields were: 1½ bushels, 31.8; 2½ bushels, 48.9; 3½ bushels, 43.7 bushels per acre.

New Prison Proposal Provides Ammunition For Fight In Lansing

By JACK I. GREEN
LANSING (AP)—A mild-mannered school teacher with firmly-closed lips has rung the opening bell on what may be one of the big fights of the 1954 legislative session.

He is Rep. Adrian deBoom, R-Owosso chairman of the House Rules and Resolutions Committee and a member of the House Prison Committee.

Friday deBoom did what observers have been expecting someone to do any minute now. That was to rip into the new State Corrections Commission for its decision to seek a $14,000,000 1,200-cell prison from the next Legislature.

Advice From Outside

DeBoom said he planned to ask for a special legislative committee to review the whole prison problem, even at the expense of delaying the start of a new prison for another year.

He was especially critical of what he said was the commission's promptness to take advice from out-of-state prison "experts" and ignore the counsel of Michigan "experts."

Some of the latter favor a 600-man medium security prison costing about $7,200,000, while others favor a minimum security camp at Ionia costing about $3,500,000.

To say that a fight is expected over this issue is to put it mildly. Observers have noted a restlessness among lawmakers during the past several months toward the new corrections commission which took office Oct. 1.

Betting is general that the commission, or a good part of it, may not even be confirmed by the Senate when it meets next month.

Started By Riots

Back of the whole row about the kind of new prison needed is the 1952 riot at Southern Michigan Prison. The experts agreed afterwards that the main reasons for the riot were overcrowding and the immense size of the institution.

Gov. Williams and some experts put the heat on the Legislature to build a new prison to relieve these conditions. The recommendations came up to the Legislature late in the session and did not receive much critical consideration.

The lawmakers felt they had to make some move to prove they were facing the facts of life. So they appropriated money to plan a new prison, leaving the final decisions until 1954. And they talked in terms of a 1,200-man prison because that was the size recommended by Austin R. McCormick, nationally-known penologist who advised on the question.

But McCormick's ideas have not had much influence with the lawmakers in the past.

Members of the commission's staff have been opposed to the 1,200-man prison, but they are not in position to fight it very strongly.

Thus the stage is set for a nice old-fashioned legislative row.

Expectant Mothers Making History In Iowa Experiments

IOWA CITY, Iowa. (AP) — Three women who have been rendered pregnant by use of frozen semen are scheduled to deliver their babies at University Hospitals here during the next three months.

The three expectant mothers are co-operating in an experiment destined to make medical history. It is believed to be the first time frozen semen has been used for artificial insemination in humans, though a similar technique previously had been used in animals.

Names Not Revealed

Dr. R. G. Bunge, who is conducting the experiment, said the first birth is expected in a few weeks. The other babies are to be born in January and February.

He said Thursday all three women are of "high integrity" who failed to achieve motherhood through their marriage. Their names were not disclosed.

"The women are 'in good health' and 'the progress of the fetuses is satisfactory,'" Dr. Bunge said.

He declined to talk about the sociological aspects of the case. "I don't want to get into the ideology of it," he said. "We're conducting the experiments and that's it."

Normal Pregnancy Expected

The source of the spermatozoa used in the experiment was not divulged but Dr. Bunge said "the source of the conception is valid."

He has adopted a "wait and see" attitude toward the case, but said the experiment so far has demonstrated "that freezing of semen does not interfere with its procreative properties."

He said the project so far has disclosed that deep frozen human spermatozoa has the capacity to fertilize an ovum and produce an embryo after it has been thawed.

No announcement of any birth will be made, Dr. Bunge said, until normalcy of any offspring has been determined. Clinical application, he added, must wait until normal embryonic development has been fully observed and the progeny declared normal.

Reparations Stingy

MANILA (AP) — An Indonesian Foreign Office official said that Japan's reported reparations offer of 250 million dollars to the Philippines, if true, is "ridiculously small."

Dr. R. Suwanto, of the Indonesian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, said before his departure by plane for Jakarta that Japan is now economically capable of paying larger reparations.

"Swap the Bill of Rights for what?"
... for what?

THE COMMUNISTS openly HATE our American Bill of Rights. They would like to replace it with ideas of their own.

What would we get in place of freedom of religion?
.... No religion.

In place of freedom of speech, and of the press?
.... Gags, and government-controlled newspapers.

In place of freedom from cruel and unusual punishment?
.... "Water cures" and "truth serums."

In place of the right to a fair trial?
.... The mockery of justice.

Before we ever give away even the smallest bit of our freedom, let's take a long, long look at what we're likely to get in exchange. That's the real test.

A vital cornerstone of America's economic freedom is the independent bank—with bank services designed to afford maximum convenience, protection and economy in money matters. We invite you to make full use of our services.

Ever have trouble with your yeast breads? Then watch to see that your dough is at about 85 degrees during rising. If the dough is too warm the bread is likely to have a coarse texture and a "yeasty" flavor. If the dough is too cold, the bread may be on the heavy side and low in volume.

PUDDING-AND-SAUCE — They come out of oven together.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

Your kids will love these chocolate cookies. They're the nearest thing we know to the chocolate candy bar with crisp crunchy rice cereal in it that small fry adore. And they're so easy to make!

In our directions for preparing the cookies, we suggest that you drop the cookie batter by level tablespoonfuls; this way you get a really substantial-sized cookie. But on the occasions when you're not putting them in the cookie jar for the kids' afterschool snacks, but are serving them to the grown-ups with evening coffee, you might want to make them a little smaller. Another tip: oldsters will like a pecan garnish on the cookies, but for the younger generation, they both wear red rose corsages.

Immediately following the wedding ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the Eagles Hall. A reception also was held at the Eagles Hall for 150 guests from 4 until 7 p. m.

Chocolate Crisps

Ingredients: 1 cup sifted flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 squares (2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate, 1/2 cup butter or margarine, 1 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 cup oven-popped rice cereal, pecan halves.

Method: Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Melt chocolate and butter over hot water. Remove from heat; cool slightly. Beat in egg and vanilla. Add to sifted flour mixture with rice cereal; mix well. Drop by level tablespoonfuls onto greased baking sheets, a few inches apart. Place a pecan half in the center of each cookie. Bake in moderate (350F) oven about 12 minutes. Cool slightly before removing from sheets with wide spatula. Makes 34 cookies.

Mocha Sauce Pudding

Ingredients: 1 cup sifted flour, 1 1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 3/4 cup sugar, 4 1/2 tablespoons cocoa, 1/2 cup milk, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine (melted), 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar, 1 cup freshly made very strong hot coffee.

Method: Sift together the flour, baking powder, salt, sugar and 2 tablespoons of the cocoa. Add milk, butter and vanilla; stir until smooth. Pour mixture into 8 greased custard cups. Mix brown sugar with remaining cocoa and sprinkle over top of batter. Pour 2 tablespoons of the coffee into each cup over the batter. Bake in moderate (350F) oven 30 minutes. Remove from oven; cool about 3 minutes. Run a spatula or small knife around sides of puddings; invert into dessert dishes, pouring sauce over cake. Serve warm garnished with walnuts, toasted almonds, or shredded moist coconut and sweetened whipped cream. Makes 8 servings.

Inland Starts Winter Work

Inland Lime and Stone Company today began its winter schedule of operations. A. W. Heitman, vice president in charge of operations, reports.

A crew of 300 men will repair the 950-foot dock during the winter, he said, and other maintenance work will be underway. Also on schedule for the winter months are stripping and blasting operations at the quarry.

The Inland dock is 25 years old and needs major repairs, Heitman said. Sheet piling and other work is scheduled to be done this winter.

Inland Lime and Stone company this year shipped a record 4,450,000 tons of stone, about 100,000 tons more than in any other year, Heitman reports. Last year shipping was down due to a strike, and in 1951 the company shipped 4,350,000 tons of stone.

The last boat, the Fitzgerald, was loaded at Port Inland for Manitowoc Thursday night. During the year, the company loaded 464 boats. The season opened March 26 with the arrival of the E. J. Block.

Inland crews Saturday completed work of filling winter stockpiles, and this morning were ready to begin the winter work schedule.

Blazing Three-Master Phantom Ship Sighted Again Off Cape John

CAPE JOHN, N. S. — The phantom ship of the Northumberland Strait is sailing the seas again, her slender masts spouting fire and ablaze from stem to stern.

At least, residents of this village say they have seen the old three-master twice within a week.

Mrs. Aldon Langille looked out her window one night when the phantom ship of the Northumberland Strait is sailing the seas again, her slender masts spouting fire and ablaze from stem to stern. Two days later, just after supper, nearly all the residents watched the blazing vessel that has been sighted as long as dwellers along this coast can remember.

"It has to be seen to be believed," the villagers say. There is a difference of opinion as to the identity of the ship. Some people say it is the phantom of a pleasure ship that was destroyed by fire during a drinking bout many years ago. Others will tell you that it is a Scottish immigrant ship that set sail for Nova Scotia in the 18th century and became lost at sea.

And, of course, some people say it's an optical illusion. Or that it's caused by gases breaking through the water from the submarine coal fields.

Many years ago, several sea captains from the nearby town of Pictou set sail to investigate the weird spectacle. When they neared her she vanished.

St. Joe In Easy 67-30 Win Over Stephenson

A well-balanced scoring attack and a tight defense provided the St. Joe Trojans with an easy 67-30 victory over the Stephenson Eagles here Saturday night.

After the first few minutes of action in which Stephenson broke to a quick lead, the Trojans settled down and moved out to a 15-6 margin at the end of the initial quarter.

Sophomore John Berrigan flipped in 13 of the 15 Trojan points with an amazing display of accuracy in the first period. He hit on six field goals and one of two free throw attempts.

SOPHOMORE STARTER — John Berrigan has landed a starting berth on the St. Joe Trojan varsity basketball team as a sophomore. The lanky cager, a workhorse on both offense and defense, is currently the leading St. Joe scorer with 59 points in four games. His one-game high is 34, scored against Bark River in the second game of the season. (Daily Press Photo)

The Trojans stepped up the pace in the second frame and led 35-12 at the half. Forward Dick Cass led Trojans with eight points.

Can't Blame Ronzani For This Defeat

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—They can't blame Gene Ronzani for this one. The Green Bay Packers coach who quit after a loss to the Detroit Lions Thanksgiving Day sat on the sidelines as his former charges lost themselves in the mud at San Francisco Sunday and bowed to the 49ers, 48-14.

Only one game behind the league-leading Detroit Lions, the 49ers ripped the Green Bay defenses to shreds.

The Packers didn't bother the San Francisco attack as much as the mud. The 49ers scored touchdowns twice in the first and third periods and once in the second and fourth. They also called on Gordy Soltau for two field goals in the last half.

Green Bay managed two scoring drives, once in the second and again in the final period.

The first Green Bay score came after two pass interference penalties against the 49ers netted 19 yards. Fullback Fred Cone scored from a yard out.

Green Bay used Babe Parilli's passes for a 74-yard march that ended with a 42-yard aerial from Parilli to halfback Don Barton for a touchdown in the fourth period.

Rodman's Foxes Open With 57 To 47 Win

HERMANSVILLE — The Rodman's Bar Foxes opened their independent basketball schedule here Sunday afternoon by posting a 57-47 victory over the Menominee Chiefs.

The Hermansville team took a 15-8 margin in the first period and led all the way with Carlson setting a 19-point scoring pace. Smith of Menominee was high point man for the night with 24.

By quarters:

Rodman's 15 12 10 20—57
Menominee 8 8 9 22—47

Coach Walt Schoussen's Eagles were unable to stop the Trojan scoring machine and trailed 53-20 going into the final period. Coach Tom St. Germain used reserves through the fourth quarter.

Four Trojans scored in double figures with Berrigan and Cass hitting 13, Jerry McDonough 12 and David Hinn 10. Six other Trojans figured in the scoring department as all 11 members of the squad saw action.

High point honors for the night went to Stephenson's forward Jerry Martin who scored 14 points on five field goals and four free throws.

The victory was the third in a row for St. Joe. The Trojans return to action next Saturday night in a home stand against the Manistique Emeralds.

In the preliminary Bee game the St. Joe Jayvees posted a 56-31 victory.

In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

It appears that Iron Mountain, next foe for Coach Burt Gustafson's Escanaba Eskymos, has something up its basketball sleeve this year . . . The Mountaineers smacked favored Ishpeming with a 46-41 defeat Friday night . . . Ishpeming entered the final period of that game with a six point lead, 38-32, but the Mountaineers pressed the Hematites all over the floor and ran away with the decision . . . Forward Dave Landell scored 31 points for Iron Mountain while Loren Bess led Ishpeming with 17.

It also looks like Crystal Falls will again this year be one of the U. P.'s strongest Class C teams . . . Fans here will remember the tough time St. Joe had with Coach Eddie Chambers' Trojans in the Class C championship tourney . . . This season Chambers, normally a Sphinx-like character, says he has one of the best and without doubt the tallest team he has ever coached at Crystal Falls . . . And he's been there for 25 years.

Menominee High School has a brand new basketball scoreboard this season to go with its new glass backboards . . . Eskey fans will have a chance to see it when the Escanaba team plays at Menominee on Friday, Jan. 15 . . . It is a Fairplay figuregram tick-away time clock with numerals replacing the clock . . . It starts with 8 minutes and reduces by seconds such as 7:59, 7:58, 7:57, etc., until time runs out . . . There never is a question of how many minutes are left because they drop off to 0:01 and out.

The Maroons seem to have a pretty good team to go with their new scoreboard . . . They won their third straight of the season Friday night by clipping Kingsford 68-34 . . . The Flivvers failed to score a single field goal in the final period.

One of those "wrong basket" situations popped up at Michigamme Friday night . . . At the start of the second half Michigamme got the tip and broke fast for the bucket . . . The boy drove in for a perfect layup in the Trenary basket . . . The extra two points helped Coach George Hager's quint to a 59-56 victory.

Several bad typographical errors appeared in the Saturday story on Manistique's basketball game at the Soo . . . When Coach Rudie Brandstrom called us Saturday morning to tell us about the defeat (70-39) he mentioned that his players hit on only 10 per cent of their field goal attempts . . . We imagine he was a little surprised when he read it 10 per cent in the paper . . . So were we.

Bruce McLean of Manistique and Bob Jensen of Escanaba were among the 20 varsity football letter winners at Ferris Institute in Big Rapids this year . . . Coach Sam Ketchman is losing only one senior from the 1953 grid squad.

Personal fouls were held to a minimum in the Bark River-Rapid River game Saturday night . . . Each team was charged with 10 . . . That's as low as in any box score we've seen this year . . . Both the Rapid River varsity and the Rapid reserves are undefeated in their four starts this season . . . The Rockets are the only unbeaten team in Delta County . . . They are averaging 67 points per game.

Fourth Quarter Bid Fails As Manistique Falls 43-42

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont. — The Manistique Emeralds staged a bitter final-period comeback here Saturday night but failed by the margin of a missed free throw from catching the Canadian Soo Collegiates. The defending U. P. Class B champs bowed 43-42.

After trailing throughout the first three periods, the Emeralds of Coach Rudie Brandstrom fought back in the finale and chased the Collegiates down to the wire in a thrilling finish.

With a half minute left to play the Emeralds got their chance when Ed Bernier was fouled. He stepped to the free throw line and missed his first shot. He earned the second to trim the Emeralds' deficit to 43-42 but time ran out before they could regain possession of the ball.

The loss was the second straight for the Great Lakes Conference co-champions who were beaten by the American Soo Blue Devils, 70-39, Friday night.

The Emeralds have another tough weekend coming up. They play host to the Gladstone Braves Friday night and then travel to St. Joe Saturday evening.

Manistique continued to have difficulty finding the hoop Saturday night. They missed 23 free throws in 37 shots and fired at 26 per cent from the field.

Marvin Larson of Manistique shared scoring honors for the night with Soo's Carscadden. Both scored 11 points on four field goals.

Johnson Hits 32 As Rapid River Beats Bark River 71-39

RAPID RIVER—With center Waldon Johnson cramming 32 points through the nets the Rapid River Rockets roared to their fourth straight win of the season here Saturday night, drubbing Bark River 71-39 before a jammed gym.

Coach Keith Hindes' veteran Rapid quint gave an early demonstration of its scoring power by rushing to a 24-6 first quarter lead. The Rockets stretched that to 41-10 at the half.

After two minutes of the third period Hindes sent his three-man bench into the game. There are only eight players on the Rapid River varsity team.

Johnson's 32 points is his highest total of this season. He played the first three quarters and two minutes of the last period. The high-scoring Rapid pivotman was ably assisted by forward Bob Hamilton whose rebound work was a determining factor in the game. He contributed 13 points.

Dick Shepherd was high scorer for Bark River with 12 points from the center slot. Florian Bartoszek ripped in 10.

Rapid River scored 32 field goals and hit in seven of 11 free throws. The Broncos converted three of 13 from the charity line. The unbeaten Rockets will entertain Eben in their next start Friday night.

Rapid River's Bee team took a 48-31 decision in the preliminary game.

Spartans Will Be In Good Shape For Rose Bowl Game

By ROBERT E. VOGES
EAST LANSING (AP)—"For the first time this season, we're going to be in good shape for a football game."

It was line coach Duffy Daugherty talking. Biggie Munn's No. 1 football assistant at Michigan State College.

Daugherty has been handling much of the planning for the practices starting this week.

"One main thing," he said, "is that we have time to get the squad back in shape again. We're going to be in our best shape of the season—at least from the physical standpoint.

Oregon's 7-Footer

Scores 49 Points

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP)—Oregon State tried out a 7-foot, 3-inch center over the weekend, and collegiate basketball now can be warned: look out for Oregon State.

The big boy, Wade Halbrook, showed enough agility against an active University of Hawaii defense to make 49 points in leading the Staters to two wins over the Hawaiians.

The tallest college player ever to appear in the Pacific Northwest, and one of the tallest anywhere, Halbrook needs only to raise his hand at arm's length to be nearly at hoop height. He needs only a small jump to ram the ball down through the hoop.

Expect Owners To Reject Three Of Player Demands

NEW YORK (AP)—Three of the big league players' major demands—boosts in pension benefits, elimination of the 30-day release clause and an increase in minimum wages from $5,000 to $7,200—were expected to be rejected by the club owners at their three-day meeting starting today.

High on the agenda is the recommendation by baseball's five-man Executive Council last Sept. 29 that a committee be named to consider terminating the pension plan. The multimillion-dollar plan, cause of one of the biggest player-owner disputes in years, popped back in the news Sunday night when Ralph Kiner of the Chicago Cubs, National League player representative, said the owners had never presented any resolution to end the plan.

Kiner and Allie Reynolds of the New York Yankees, American League player representative, Wednesday walked out on a conference with Commissioner Ford Frick. The players said they left because their lawyer, J. Norman Lewis, wasn't allowed to attend the meeting.

"The statement the owners made that they had a resolution to end the pension plan and that Allie Reynolds and I had failed to notify the players about this resolution is a complete falsehood," Kiner said.

"Never at any time did the owners make such a resolution. At our Atlanta meeting Mr. J. Norman Lewis, our attorney, assured the 16 player representatives that there was no chance of the pension plan being dropped."

Hockey Schedule Opens This Week But Hawks' Opener Is Postponed

Ready to open their fourth season in the Northern Michigan Hockey League, the Escanaba Hawks this winter will play a 26-game schedule that includes 24 official league games, 12 at home

A workbee will be held at the fairgrounds exhibition hockey building this evening at 7. Work will be done on the bleacher seats and on a standing room platform on the west side of the building.

and 12 away, and two exhibition games with the Canadian Soo.

An innovation this season is the double swing around the circuit by the fast Canadian Soo sextet.

Had American Soo entered, a six-team circuit would have been formed, but with only one Soo team available, league fathers determined to play the regular 24-game league slate. In addition, however, each team will be host twice to the Canadian Soo during the season but the games will not count in the league championship race.

Escanaba's Hawks will entertain the Soo Sunday afternoon, Jan. 17, and Wednesday night, March 3. The defending champion Calumet Radars, Portage Lake and Marquette each will make four appearances in Escanaba.

Because of lack of natural ice, Escanaba's schedule opener with Marquette here Wednesday, Dec. 9, will not be played. It will be rescheduled as soon as weather conditions permit play here.

Hockey fans in this area are urged to clip the following schedule and to watch the Escanaba Daily Press sports page for future announcements about league activities:

Black Hawks Surprise Wings With 5-0 Slap

DETROIT (AP)—It seldom happens but . . .

Sometimes the Detroit Red Wings are shut out by the Chicago Black Hawks. For instance, Sunday night. The lowly Black Hawks turned on the Red Wings and blanked them 5-0.

Only last week, Detroit pummeled Chicago 9-0 and 9-4 in a weekend series. It was without doubt one of the worst back-to-back beatings in many years. But Coach Sid Abel—a former Detroit—brought his Chicago team to town last night with the promise: "We'll be a lot stronger."

The Hawks were overpowering. They stunned the Red Wings with two goals in the first two minutes and held a 3-0 lead at the end of the first period.

The Chicagoans scored once in each of the last two periods to run their winning string to two straight games. They've won only five games all season.

It was Detroit's second shutout in as many nights. The Red Wings journeyed to Toronto Saturday night and were defeated 3-0. That knocked them out of first place in the National Hockey League, in favor of the Montreal Canadiens. Montreal swept two weekend games to gain a three-point lead over Detroit.

College Basketball Is Back To Normal Again

By ED CORRIGAN
NEW YORK (AP)—College basketball took on an aura of normalcy today because:

1. Kentucky was back in action after being suspended a year by the Southeastern Conference.
2. Branch McCracken, coach of NCAA champion Indiana, has expressed dissatisfaction with his team.
3. The raves over Bevo Francis and his Rio Grande College team, which on occasion reached a fever pitch, have subsided.

All this and the season only one week old.

Want National Title
Adolph Rupp's Kentucky team spent most of last year practicing for the current campaign with the avowed intention of winning the national title and showing no mercy in the process.

The Wildcats looked like they might make good their threat in their opener Saturday when they massacred Temple 86-59 behind the 51-point scoring binge of Cliff Hagen, their 1951 All America. This represented a Kentucky record for one-game point production.

"We didn't play nearly as well as we are capable," said Rupp. "We'll need four or five games to get the feel of competition again."

Kentucky plays only one game

Adolph Rupp Pleased With Kentucky's First Showing

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—The feeling around the blue grass today was that Kentucky, college basketball's sleeping giant, woke with a snort.

The Wildcats, nervous, jittery and somewhat clumsy after a full season on the sidelines, waded through a good Temple team, 86-59, Saturday night, and Coach Adolph Rupp saw enough to please him.

"We made mistakes," Rupp said today, "but they were expected. We are capable of playing much better ball. Give us four or five more games and we should look much better."

Kentucky, long a leading national basketball power, had to sit out this week—against Xavier of Ohio in Cincinnati.

McCracken's pessimism over Indiana well may be justified. The Hoosiers had their troubles licking Cincinnati 78-65 after holding a slight one-point margin at the half.

"Long Way To Go"
The coach sadly proclaimed the club had "a long way to go" if it is going to repeat as Big Ten and NCAA titlist.

The Hoosiers won't have a chance to relax tonight. They play Kansas State, one of the three teams to defeat them last season. State opened its campaign with a 70-41 victory over Denver.

As for Francis and Rio Grande, they have played four games and won two after running up a 40-game winning streak. Bevo has hit for 176 points in the four games for an average of 44 points per game.

In all, the general impression was that Rio Grande is a good, small college team, but still very much in the small college class.

Tom Yawkey Is Against Ball Players Demands

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (AP)—Tom Yawkey, president of the Boston Red Sox and a member of baseball's Executive Council, said today he would vote against the major league players' demand for an increase in pension benefits and hinted he also was against boosting the minimum wage from $5,000 to $7,200.

The portly Red Sox owner, who favored the resolution calling for possible termination of the pension plan, said he was all in favor of the players operating the fund themselves if they wanted to.

"It would be very nice to turn it over to them if they want to run the thing," he said. "I would be glad to turn my end over to them provided they satisfy me for what I have contributed."

Says It's Impossible
Yawkey said the players' request to raise the pension benefits from a $50-$100 scale to an $80-$150 and lowering the qualifying age from 50 to 45, was not workable.

"It's like the age-old law of supply and demand," he said. "You can't take out twice as much as you pay in. If there were enough of an increase in revenue, from the television receipts of the World Series and All-Star Game, I don't believe anyone would object to increasing the benefits. But I certainly won't vote for it because you just can't give away what you haven't got."

The wealthy Red Sox president believes, however, the differences between the players and owners can be straightened out to the satisfaction of both sides.

-Can Drop It Quick
"I certainly intend to try my best, despite my personal feelings in the matter, to use my best judgment to do what I consider is for the best interests of baseball," he said. "There is no reason why this thing can't be straightened out. All that is necessary is a little common sense by both sides."

Yawkey verified that the owners are not going to decide whether to retain or drop the pension plan at the current meetings. They simply will consider the resolution to appoint an exploration committee to last season as punishment for "overemphasis."

Rupp used the sidown—ordered by the Southeastern Conference and the NCAA—to work on some refinements he said he had in mind and the word was out that Kentucky was "loaded" for its return to the campaigns.

Kentucky was unable to live up to the "loaded" reputation against Temple, although the victory was an easy one and Cliff Hagen broke some scoring records with his 51-point production.

But Rupp's word that the Wildcats should regain in four or five games the polish and poise lost through a year's inactivity did nothing to comfort a long line of opponents.

study the possibility of dissolving the fund. The owners can drop the plan with 90 days notice.

Each league has scheduled separate meetings today and Tuesday. The three-day conclave ends Wednesday with a joint meeting presided over by Commissioner Ford Frick. The National has a proposal to change its rules on playing off a pennant tie. The National now has a best-of-three play-off and the American a one-game finale. If the amendment is adopted, the National also would play one game.

Off To Shaky Start, Indiana Gets Stiff Cage Test Tonight

CHICAGO (AP)—Indiana's basketball champions, off to a shaky start, get a rough test tonight from Kansas State's Wildcats.

The game, at Bloomington, Ind., tops an evening's program in which four Big Ten teams take part. In other contests, Wisconsin is at Loyola of Chicago, North-western is at Notre Dame and Minnesota hosts Tulsa.

Indiana, Big Ten and NCAA titlist, last season, had trouble finding itself Saturday in its opening game, against Cincinnati.

Off To Poor Start
The Hoosiers stumbled and fired wildly for nearly three quarters. Then, trailing 32-29, they shook off whatever was bothering them and settled down for a 78-65 victory.

Don Schlundt and Bob Leonard scored 20 points each but Schlundt, especially, repeatedly missed open shots.

Coach Branch McCracken said after the game that his veterans have "a long way to go" to match last season's performance.

The Hoosiers undoubtedly will have to be in good form tonight. Kansas State was one of three teams that beat Indiana last year and the Wildcats swamped Denver 70-41 Saturday.

Big Ten Wins
Eight other Big Ten teams also triumphed over nonconference opponents Saturday. Scores:

Iowa 51, Washington of St. Louis 45; Illinois 86, Oklahoma 61; Michigan 78, Pittsburgh 69; Michigan State 88, Creighton 51; Minnesota 65, Nebraska 64; Northwestern 69, Western Michigan 53; Purdue 71, Wabash 61; and Ohio State 93, Butler 78.

Earlier in the week, Wisconsin beat Butler 70-54 and Marquette 64-56. Illinois beat Ohio University 85-54 and Purdue walloped Valparaiso 83-64.

Thus, all conference teams went through the first week's activity without loss.

Noteworthy individual performances were the pointmaking efforts turned in Saturday by Illinois' Johnny Kerr and Ohio State's Paul Ebert. Each scored 34 points, setting fieldhouse records at Oklahoma and Butler.

The class of competition picks up with this week's 16-game schedule.

The program for the rest of the week:

Tuesday—Valparaiso at Michigan, Ohio State at St. Louis, Purdue at Bradley.

Wednesday—Butler at Illinois.

Thursday—Oklahoma A & M at Minnesota.

Saturday—Alabama at Illinois, Indiana at Butler, Iowa at Nebraska, Marquette at Michigan, Oklahoma at Ohio State, Loyola of Chicago at Purdue, Missouri at Wisconsin.

Jailed, Decides To Pay $5 Fine
Appearing before Justice A. T. Solberg Saturday after being arrested by Michigan State Police for operating a motor vehicle with faulty equipment, Blaine Reiter, Hardwood, formerly of Nahma was given five days in jail or the alternative of paying a fine of $5 and court costs of $2.

A commitment was made and Reiter taken to jail where he decided to pay the fine.

While in court Reiter had to answer to two previous traffic tickets given him, one last June for driving without an operator's license and another for driving an auto with defective brakes.

On the first he was fined $1.00 and on the second a fine of $5.00 and costs of $4.30. He was given five days in which to pay.

Although it is usually thought of as a land frontier, the boundary between Canada and the United States is more water than land.

Diver Seeks Record But Never Returns From Gulf Depths

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The choppy waters of the Gulf stream today held the body of Hope Root and brought a tragic end to the 52-year-old Miami attorney's attempt to break the world's free-swimming diving record.

Root went overboard from the charter boat Araabalete two miles off Miami Beach at 11:27 a. m. (CST) Thursday, plunging to a depth of 500 feet.

Patrolling boats and a Coast Guard helicopter searched for hours but found no trace of the body.

Root had planned to descend to 410 feet for a new free-swimming diving record. In such dives, a face mask, foot fins and a compressed air tank are used but the diver swims free.

Tracked By Sonar

Jordan Klein, skipper of the Araabalete, said Root expected to complete the dive in 20 minutes. "He descended to 40 feet, then ascended to equalize the pressure," Klein said. "Then he descended to 30 feet and stopped again to equalize the pressure. Then he went down like a shot to 400 feet."

"That was all according to schedule, but after leveling off at 400 feet, he dropped to 450. We had a cable over with painted tags at various depths. Root expected to bring back the tag from the 410-foot level, which would have given him a world's record dive.

"Our deepest tag was at 450 feet and I thought perhaps he was going for that one. But something happened. He went down again, this time to 500 feet.

"He was tracked by sonar equipment on a University of Miami research boat to these various depths. The water there was about 620 feet deep. That was the end. He wasn't seen again."

Water Too Rough

Klein said his 38-foot boat "took an awful licking" from the waves in winds up to 26 miles an hour that stirred the sea and caused strong currents.

Root, 5 feet 5 and weighing 170 pounds, said he had been as deep as 370 feet in unofficial dives. The official record held by a living man is 306 feet set in the Mediterranean Sea. A Frenchman descended to 396 feet but was hauled up dead.

Root was born in Alton, Ill., and grew up in Fort Worth, Texas. He was graduated from Harvard Law School in 1928, moved to Vero Beach from New York in 1937 and came to Miami a year later.

A friend begged him not to try the dive because of the rough weather but Root said he was all keyed up and ready to go and "couldn't stop now."

Comedian Berle, 32, To Wed Third Time

NEW YORK (AP) — Television comedian Milton Berle, 32, and publicist Ruth Cosgrove, 32, took out a marriage license Thursday and plan to be married next Wednesday.

It will be the third matrimonial venture for both.

Starting to pay the $3 license fee, Berle produced $2 and turned to his fiancée.

"Ruth, give me a dollar," he said. "This is forever, so pay your share."

Miss Cosgrove just smiled. Berle ponied up the third dollar.

As the couple left, City Clerk Murray Stand called out: "See you again."

Berle turned and seriously replied: "Oh, no, this is the last time. I won't be here any more."

Big Whale Catch

TOKYO (AP) — A Japanese whaling fleet in the Antarctic has claimed a world record sperm whale catch.

Kyodo News Service said the fleet caught 67 whales Thursday, more sperm whales than ever before on a single day.
